Verse 4

The musical score for Verse 4 consists of three staves of music in a single system, written in a treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat major). The lyrics are: "They are more to be desired than gold, than the pu rest of gold and swee ter are they than ho ney, than ho ney from the comb." The chords are indicated above the staff: A and Dm for the first line, Gm, A, and Dm for the second line, and Bb, C, and Dm for the third line. A first ending bracket is placed over the first staff, starting with a "4." marking. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.
